

KP-124
1962

August 27, 1962

Handwritten notes of President Kennedy at his desk to be used in connection with a statement on Cuba.

1st page

spur of the moment and hit and run raid such as this only strenthens the communist cause, not weaken it.

While we appreciate the strong feelings of this free student group and their hostility to the most oppressive regime

2nd page

we cannot approve of the use of the United States territory for such activities.

The Justice Department has been instructed to impound the goods - and we must inform those involved that any repetition

3rd page

by any group will bring this under the provisions and penalties of the neutrality netrality Act.

st. Louis
city
Aug. 27, 1902

had much a
thurs, ^{disent once in the} ~~by~~ ^{the} ~~the~~
the combing came.
had been to

While we were to
the stay feeling
of their free
I order ^{from} ~~from~~
and then looking to the end of the season again

of us going
building the
under the power
and facilities
the building, etc.

he cannot give
of the use of
the United States
territory from action.

The Justice Dept
has been involved in a lawsuit the lands and we must be from there unless
that any resolution